

Merry Christmas!

YOU HAVE BEEN ELFED!

That time of year is nearly here -
I'm here to help spread Christmas Cheer!
You've been elfed by your friend or neighbor - now it's time to return the favor!
There are 3 different ways to play - It's up to you -
you choose which way:

1. You can keep me for yourself, maybe sit me up on a shelf,
To watch all of your preparations, I make a lovely decoration!
Enjoy me, keep me - I'm here to stay and hang around 'till Christmas Day!

2. You can spread some Christmas Cheer by giving me to someone dear
But there's one thing that must be noted and this can not be sugar coated:
YOU MUST NOT BE SEEN
- it's a rule of the elf. You'll have to deliver me by stealth!
No thank you notes or recognition, this really is a secret mission.
And one you'll treasure when you feel the joy of giving - yes, it's real!

3. You want to give me to someone new,
But the thought of parting makes you blue
That's simple - keep me - I'll be your elf and you can sit me upon your shelf.
I'll watch as you order a new elf to send to a special neighbor or a friend.
You can still join in the fun and I'll stay and be your special one!

The choice is yours to make, my friend, Whether to keep or whether to send.

There's no right or wrong - it's your decision, To keep me or send me out on a mission.

You are special - this much I believe
Because someone chose you to receive!
